THE LORD'S DAY • SEPTEMBER 15TH, 2019

Restoration

You are in a place so dark and deep
And at times it's hard to sleep.

All seems hopeless, all seems lost
And life seems to go off course.

Your heart and mind is at the breaking point,
And God seems so distant and out of reach.

Hope and faith is fading fast and nothing is going right.
The loss of health and loss of wealth has gotten you down.
Then to add to the mix, the loss of people you love dearly.
Who you thought would be around you forever.
Mom, dad, uncles, aunts and children and the life you planned.

This is not how you envisioned life
"pause"
Sometimes your plans are not God's plans.

You're going through the valley of doubt and despair and losing people you once held dear.

Their smiles and laughter, the hurt and pain
in your heart will always remain.

Your faith although tried and tested
Has stood the test of time.

Your faith is restored when you turn to the Lord.
For you realize he is your great reward.

Restoration comes and the pain subsides
For there was nowhere to hide

You turn to the one you talk to morning, noon and night.
He's the one your battle will fight.

He will always be there to hold your hands
And never let you go.

So when in the place of dark despair
Know that Jesus our Lord truly cares.
May God bless you! Kevin Barton
