Our Lord leads His own!

Our redeemed lives are best read_____.

Abraham's servant had to be "in the way" for the Lord to _____him to Rebekah.

Alexander Maclaren (loosely quoted):

- The divine hand moving beneath all the nothings and little-nesses of daily life.
- Have feet on the path which one's conscience approves.
- It we expect guidance, we must diligently do our present duty; one duty at a time. One thing at a time is enough for little brains.
- Do the duty that lies nearest you; and the more remote duty will become more clear.
- There are many people that say, 'O Lord, guide me' when all the while they mean, 'Let me guide Thee'.
- God leaves a great deal to our common sense. His way of speaking to common sense is by very common things.

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you feel that you are currently "in the way"? Why or why not?

2. Would you tell someone a specific way that the Lord has led you in the past?
Who? When?

3. Right now, are your feet on the path which your conscience approves?
