March Update from Phyllis Newby

Trusting in the midst of great adversity has always been a hallmark of the true Body of Christ. He is Jehovah Shalom, even when the world around us is shaking to its core. Sister Phyllis and the Body of Christ in Haiti have experienced this for many years, and even more so in the last five years.

According to Sister Phyllis, "Some churches cannot meet at all, yet others are able to have special gatherings. When they are able to meet, it is such an encouragement to so many. The people have little to nothing, but they are making do because they have God in their lives."

By the grace of God, we have continued to minister to the people as He has provided. We recently received another shipment of supplies from the US. It's a miracle that it made it to us! We have also continued the financial support every two months to over 250 village churches. While they receive a very small stipend, we are grateful to be able to send them something to help and encourage them.

Sister Phyllis also states, "We are still trusting the Lord and expecting great things from God! We are greatly encouraged and have reasons to give God thanks because of your love and support."

As you can see, your prayers, support, and tangible giving serve not only as physical lifelines but also as spiritual lifelines. Our brothers and sisters in Haiti are endeavoring to trust and rejoice in the staunchest of circumstances. We rejoice with them and are thankful for all the help that God has provided.

Thank you for continuing to love, support, and stand with them!
